

TECHNICAL SHEET

|                         |                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CODE             | 7341X                                                                                                                 |
| DESCRIPTION      | Assisted lift recessed manhole cover mod. VALET 50 in AISI 304 Stainless Steel, th. 30/10, c/w frame and gas springs. |
| PRODUCT LINE     | Stainless steel recessed manhole cover                                                                                |
| MATERIAL         | Inox AISI 304 - X5 CrNi 18 10                                                                                         |
| SURFACE FINISH   | Pickled                                                                                                               |
| REACTION TO FIRE | Class A1 according to standard EN 13501-1                                                                             |
| LOADING CLASS    | To define according to the filling                                                                                    |
| LIFTING SYSTEM   | Tampered plastic cap                                                                                                  |

| Article dimensions mm | Clear opening measures mm | Recessed cover thickness mm | Frame thickness mm | Weight Kg/each |
|-----------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------|--------------------|----------------|
| 850 x 850 x H50       | 800 x 800                 | 3                           | 3                  | 29,2           |